

Label each picture. Use these words: sleeve, sweats, beret, top hat, pocket, mittens, collar, suit, bonnet, zipper, gloves, buckle, crown, belt, hardhat, flip-flops, robe, turban, motorcycle helmet, slippers, boots, tie, knot, shorts, trousers, jeans, sandals, tennis shoes, t-shirt, cowboy hat, boxers, briefs, shirt, vest, hood

Select the correct word in each sentence.

1. I bought a bike (hat-cap-helmet) to protect my head if I fall.
2. She tied her hair back with a pretty (ribbon-rope-thread).
3. The old woman pulled the (rope-string-thread) through the eye of the needle and tied a (bind-knot-lump) in the end.
4. The man put on a (belt-glove-scarf) to hold up his pants.
5. The woman tied a colorful (scarf-sweater-blouse) around her head.
6. The woman buttoned her (sweatshirt-overcoat-belt) as she stepped out into the freezing wind.
7. Please (dress-button-zipper) the baby while I get his breakfast ready.
8. Can you help me (fasten-button-tie) the hook on my necklace?

Read these conversations and tell what is happening.

Conversation 1

Abby: I got all dressed up, then discovered the dance was tomorrow night.

FUMC ESL 9-9-2010

Beth: That's a shame. But at least you know all your new clothes fit.

Abby: (laughing) That's one way to look at it.

Conversation 2

Patricia: Amy gave me these dresses that she has outgrown, but I'm not sure they will fit me.

Bob: The only way to know is to try them on.

Patricia: You're right, but I hate trying on clothes.

Conversation 3

Mom: Joey, slip on your shoes and we'll go to the park.

Joey: Mom, why can't I go barefoot.

Mom: Sometimes there is glass on the ground. You might cut your feet.

Conversation 4

Jess: I took off my shoes somewhere upstairs and now I can't remember where they are.

Britney: You were watching TV in the den. Have you checked there?

Jess: First place I looked, but they weren't there.

Britney: You didn't look very well because here they are right under the coffee table.

Conversation 5

Celina: It is so cold out here. I am wearing my heaviest overcoat and I am still freezing. Where is your coat?

Chad: I didn't wear one. I'm hot natured. It doesn't feel that cold to me.

Celina: It's below freezing!

Chad: Yes, but I grew up in North Dakota, so 30 degrees doesn't seem that cold to me. You're probably cold natured. When you grow up in Florida you just don't get used to cold weather.

Conversation Questions:

Who does not like cold weather?

Who lost something?

Which conversation was about hand me downs?

Which conversation concerned the safety of children?

Who was confused about the date of an event?

Who was not good at looking for things?

Who grew up in a northern state where it gets very cold?

Who outgrew their clothes?

Who likes to go without shoes?

Which person likes to look on the bright side of things?

Discussion Questions:

Who is the best in your family at finding lost items?

Who loses things more often, you or your roommate?

Do you like to get dressed up for special occasions or had you rather wear casual clothes?

Do you always try on clothes before you buy them or do you wait til you get home?

Do you find the clothes in the U.S. are made differently than clothes in your country?

Are the sizes different here than in your country?

Do you have trouble finding shoes that fit?

How often do you wear a belt?

Are you hot natured or cold natured?

What was the climate like where you grew up?

How do you feel about the climate in Austin?