

Using Phrasal Verbs (Use with pg 38-39)

Phrasal Verbs = a verb and adverb used together. For example:

wake up
get up
pick up
get home work out

Get Up

What time do you get up? Do you like to get up early? Do you go to bed late?

There is a saying, "The early bird gets the worm." Is that right?

Wake Up

Who wakes up first in your house? What time do you wake up the kids? Do you wake up happy? What wakes you up at night? Are you hard to wake up in the morning?

Pick Up

Who picks up the children from school? Who picks you up after class? Who picks up groceries for the family?

Get Home

What time do you get home from class? What time does your spouse get home? When do your kids get home? What do you do when you get home?

Work out (to exercise)

Do you work out? Where do you work out? Do you like to work out? Do you work out with your spouse?

Using pages 38 and 39 of the Picture Dictionary, take turns describing what is happening in each picture. Name every item in the picture.

Questions

Do you wake up to music or an alarm? What is the best way to wake up?

Do you like to shower or to bathe? Does your bathroom have both a shower and a tub?

What do you eat for breakfast? What do your children eat? Do you like cereal? Do you drink milk? Do you drink coffee? Do you like orange juice or tomato juice?

Do you drive your kids to school or do they take a bus?

How many cars do you own? Who drives the most? Do you like to drive? How long have you been driving?

Is it easy to ride the bus in Austin?

What classes do you take?

How often do you shop? What do you shop for most often?

Where do you buy groceries? Do you cook American food or your native food?

Does your spouse work? What time does your husband/wife come home from work?

Do you eat dinner together? Who cooks dinner?

How many times do you eat each day?

What time do you eat dinner?

Who cleans house?

Who helps the kids with homework?

At 8 PM, what are you doing?

Do you allow the children to watch TV on school nights?

Do you allow the children to play video games?

Who goes to bed first, you or your spouse?

Describe each picture. Then ask the group a question about the picture.

©Alex Bannykh * illustrationsOf.com/435171

