

Pronounce the vocabulary on pages 86 and 87.

Have each student make a sentence describing what is happening on pages 86 and 87.

Answer these questions in complete sentences:

1. What are the people waiting for?
2. Which man is wearing a shirt with a button down collar?
3. Which man is wearing a t-shirt?
4. Which man is wearing a shirt and tie?
5. Which woman is putting on a sweater?
6. When do the doors open?
7. Who is tying their shoes?
8. Which person is buying tickets?
9. Which person is putting her phone in her purse?
10. How many of the women are carrying purses?
11. Which woman is wearing a skirt and blouse?
12. How many women are wearing dresses?
13. How many men are wearing suits?
14. Which man is wearing jeans?
15. Two men are wearing khaki pants. What colors are their shirts?
16. Which woman is wearing a belt?

Read the conversations below. Then point to the couple who might be having this conversation.

1-

Luis: I am happy to have these two tickets. I am glad Bob gave the tickets to me. His wife got sick. She could not go. So Bob gave his tickets to me.

Imelda: I am glad we can go to the concert. It is cool tonight. I will put on my sweater.

2-

Jason: The sign says the door opens at 8. It is 8 o'clock now. I wish they would open the doors.

Kim: I think they will open them soon. I will turn off my phone and put it in my purse. I don't want it to ring during the concert.

3-

Jenny: Thanks for asking me out tonight. This concert sounds fun.

Brad: I'm glad you could come. You look very pretty in your green dress. Is it new?

Jenny: No, it is not new. Thank you for the compliment. I did not know you liked jazz music.

Brad: I like jazz a lot. I played in a jazz band when I was in college.

4-

Robert: Could I have two tickets, please.

Jill: Oh, look my shoes are untied. I'd better tie them so I don't trip.

Verbs

put on is a phrasal verb. EX: Put on your shoes. Put on your sweater. Practice using this word in sentences:

This morning, I put on _____.

Yesterday, I ...

Tonight, I will...

I have _____ this/these _____ every day this week.

Wear is a verb. EX: I wear a sweater to class because it is cold in the classroom. I wore a sweater to class yesterday. I will wear a sweater tomorrow. I have worn a sweater every day. She was wearing a sweater, so she was not cold.

Make a sentence with these forms of the verb “wear”:

wear:

wore:

(to have) worn:

(to be) wearing:

Wait is a verb. EX: I wait at this corner for the bus. I waited for the bus for one hour. He has waited for the bus for thirty minutes. They are waiting for the bus to come.

Tie is a verb and a noun. I tie my shoes myself. My little boy tied his own shoes. He has tied his tie incorrectly. I have never tied a tie before. Dad is tying my tie for me.

Answer these questions about the lesson in complete sentences.

- 1.How long do you wait for the bus to class?
- 2.Do you wait for someone to pick you up?
- 3.What do you do while you wait? (Hint: While I wait, I ...)
- 4.Do you wear a tie often?
- 5.Who showed you how to tie a tie?
- 6.Do you tie your children’s tie?
- 7.Where do you wear a tie?
- 8.Do you have a suit?
- 9.Do you wear jeans or slacks?
- 10.Are you wearing a belt?
- 11.Describe what you are wearing (including colors). EX: I am wearing a red t-shirt, brown slacks and a brown sweater.
- 12.Do you wear caps often? How many people in the picture are wearing a cap?