

Review of verbs from Monday's lesson

Use the verb in parenthesis to fill in the blank in these sentences.

- 1.(wear) The girl _____ a pretty dress last night.
- 2.(tie) The boy is _____ his shoes.
- 3.(wait) Tomorrow, the children _____ for the bus.
- 4.(wear) The men are _____ suits to school.
- 5.(tie) Last Sunday, Mother _____ the boys ties.
- 6.(wait) John and I _____ for the school bus.
- 7.(wear) Next week, I will _____ my red sweater.
- 8.(tie) Dad will _____ his shoes.

Pronounce the vocabulary on pages 88-89.

Take turns making sentences about the picture on pages 88 and 89.

Answer these questions in a complete sentence:

- 9.How many men are wearing ties?
- 10.Who is wearing a red bow tie?
- 11.Who is wearing a vest?
- 12.What color is the evening dress?
- 13.Who is wearing high heels?
- 14.Who is wearing sandals? What color are her sandals?
- 15.Who are carrying briefcases?
- 16.Which ladies are talking on the phone?
- 17.Who is playing on the floor?
- 18.Which suitcase is open?
- 19.Where is the Tran wedding?
- 20.Where is the gym?
- 21.Who is wearing sweatpants?
- 22.Who is wearing a tank top?
- 23.Who is wearing a uniform?

Verb Practice: Read the example sentences, then make a new sentence using each form of the verb.

carry:

I carry the bags.

She carries the briefcase.

Yesterday, they carried all the books to the classroom.

Tomorrow, he will carry the bags.

The boys are carrying her bags.

climb:

I climb the stairs to my apartment quickly.

My husband climbs the stairs slowly.

Last night, a man climbed into my apartment through the window.

I will climb the ladder tomorrow.

She is climbing the ladder now.

arrive:

They arrive at six o'clock.

She arrives after midnight.

My parents arrived yesterday.

My grandparents will arrive tomorrow.

My husband is arriving this afternoon.

dress:

I dress my children in nice clothes.

She dresses her children in old clothes.

I dressed quickly this morning.

They will dress in their new clothes tomorrow.

Mother is dressing the baby.

choose:

My daughter chooses her own clothes.

They choose their daughter's clothes.

My boyfriend chose a ring for me.

She will choose a new pair of shoes.

We are choosing black sandals.

go:

I go to school here.

She goes to school there.

He went to school here last year.

Jo will go to school next year.

We are going to school tomorrow.

drop:

I drop my books on the table each day.

She drops her books on the floor.

You dropped your bag.

He will drop the heavy bag.

They are dropping all the apples.

Read these sentences and decide who is talking.

1. I am having a baby in three months.
2. I dropped the suitcase. The clothes are on the floor.
3. I will carry your bag for you.
4. The gym is this way.
5. It is time for the wedding.
6. That was a long run. I am hot and tired.
7. Look. Here come the men. They are dressed nicely.
8. Where is the gym?
9. I am ready for the meeting. I am calling my boss now.
10. Thank you for carrying my bag.