

Look at the picture on pages 84-85. Read the vocabulary. Answer the questions. Take turns making sentences about this picture.

Tell if these sentences are true or false. If they are false, correct them.

1. Three men are playing music.
2. A woman is putting purple flowers in a vase.
3. A woman is buying strawberries.
4. A man is drinking water.
5. The children are choosing some samples.
6. The blueberries are next to the strawberries.
7. The woman is counting avocados.
8. There are three herbs on the table.
9. The child in the stroller is crying.
10. The man is selling lemonade.
11. The man is holding a cane.
12. One of the vendors is selling avocados.
13. The vendor is choosing a sweet.
14. A woman is eating a cookie.

Read the story on page 85.

Answer the "Think About It" questions.

Study these verb tenses:

choose: I choose the purple one.

chose: I chose to eat a taco.

(be) choosing: She is choosing a donut for the child.

(have) chosen: She has chosen the chocolate donut.

sell: I sell tomatoes at the farmer's market.

sold: I sold two dozen tomatoes yesterday.

(be) selling: I am selling tomatoes every Saturday.

(have) sold: I have sold all my tomatoes.

go: I go to the farmer's market on Saturdays.

went: Last Saturday, I went to the market.

(be) going: She is going to the market with me.

(have) gone: She has gone to the market.

buy: I buy tomatoes at the farmer's market.

bought: I bought many tomatoes for my salad.

(be) buying: I am buying tomatoes for my salad.

(have) bought: I have bought too many tomatoes.

Make a sentence with each form of the verb choose, sell, buy and go.

Answer these questions with complete sentences.

Example: Where do you buy shoes? I buy shoes at PayLess in the mall.

1. Where do you go on weekends?
2. Where do you go for fun?
3. Where do you go with your children?
4. Where do you go on the bus?
5. Do you go to a farmer's market?
6. Do you go to the library?
7. Where did you go to school?
8. Where do you buy clothes?
9. Where do you buy furniture?
10. When did you buy a car?
11. Do you like live music?
12. Do you like sour drinks?
13. When did you come to Austin?

Tell about farmer's markets in your country.