Make a sentence with each word or phrase. (Teachers write them on the board and correct as necessary.)

Practice reading these conversations with a partner. Ask the teacher if you have questions. Now read the conversations to the class.

Jan: Do you like this shampoo?

Karen: No, I don't. I don't like the smell. It smells bad.

Jan: I don't usually buy scented shampoo. I have allergies. I use unscented shampoo and soap.

Karen: I do, too.

Jan: I really like this conditioner. It will make your hair very soft. You should try it.

Karen: I don't usually use conditioner. But I will try this.

Jill: It is windy today. My hair is blowing in my face.

Meg: Do you want a hair clip? I have one in my purse.

Jill: Yes, thank you. Do you have any nail clippers. I broke my fingernail on the box.

Meg: I do not have nail clippers. I have an emery board. Here it is.

Jill: Thank you. I am borrowing everything. You are a good friend.

Brian: I forgot my razor. I will have to borrow one.

Ed: No problem. I will lend you my electric shaver. You will like it. It makes your skin very smooth. The girls will like it.

Brian: I hope you are right.
