

FUMC ESL 7-9-2012 Intermediate Lesson

For each picture, say "This person is a _____."

Tell which sentence belongs with each picture.

1. The teacher waits for an answer.
2. The hairdresser is cutting his hair.
3. The fireman puts out the fire.
4. The lawyer goes to the court house.
5. The policeman directs traffic.
6. The nurse comforts the patient.
7. The waiter serves the meal.
8. The doctor examines the patient.
9. The girl buys a toy.
10. The dentist will examine your teeth.

Use these verbs to fill in the sentences below:

wait    direct    comfort    serve

examine    buy

1. We will _____ at the corner for the bus.
2. I will _____ tea to the guests.
3. She will _____ some coffee at the market.
4. _____ the car before you buy it.
5. Mother will _____ the child.
6. The man will _____ the traffic around the accident.

Read these conversations and answer the questions.

Jan: How long will we have to wait here?

Sam: I think it will be a long time. The doctor is at the hospital. We will wait until he gets back to the office.

Jan: I don't like to wait.

Sam: Waiting is hard. I have some magazines. Do you want one?

Jan: No, thank you. I have waited a long time to get an appointment. I will wait for the doctor.

1. Where are Sam and Jan?
2. Who are they waiting for?
3. Who has some magazines?
4. Who doesn't like to wait?

Cindy: May I help you?

Jane: The nurse directed me here. She said you would tell me how to get to the emergency room.

Cindy: Yes, I will give you directions. Go down the hall on your left. At the end of the hall, turn right and you will see the emergency room.

1. What is Jane looking for?
2. Which hall should Jane go down?
3. Which direction should she turn at the end of the hall.
4. Give directions to our ESL classroom from the street.

Tammy: Mary is here with her baby. She is very sad. Her baby is very sick. She must wait in the hospital until the baby is better. She feels uncomfortable here. It is not like home.

Sara: I will go sit with her. I will comfort her. I will take a soft chair for her. I will make her more comfortable.

5. Why is Mary at the hospital?
6. How long must Mary wait?
7. How does Mary feel?
8. What will Sara do?
9. How would you comfort a sick friend?

Jo: I feel uncomfortable at parties. I am shy. I don't like to talk to strangers.

Jess: I know what you mean. It is hard to talk to people at parties. I am out of my comfort zone at parties. I talk a lot at home. But I don't talk a lot away from home.

Jo: It comforts me to know you are shy also. We can talk to each other.

1. What are Jess and Jo talking about?
2. What is a "comfort zone"?
3. Who talks a lot at home?
4. Who is shy?
5. How does Jess comfort Jo?
6. How would you comfort a sick friend?

Anna: I serve milk and cookies at the children's parties.

Carla: I like to serve healthy snacks. I serve carrots and fruit. The children like it. It has less sugar.

Anna: You are right. Carrots and fruit are healthier than cookies. But, a few cookies won't hurt the children. It is a party. At parties you should serve special food.

1. Whose party would you like to attend?
2. Do you agree with Carla that healthy snacks are best for children's parties?
3. Do you ever serve milk and cookies to your children?
4. Do you worry about too much sugar?