

Prepositions: Use one of these prepositions to fill in the blanks. In some cases there is more than one answer.

in in back of in front of inside instead of

1. I like to stay _____ the house when it's cold outside.
2. It's really hard to work _____ this heat.
3. May we play _____ the school gym?
4. She kept her pencils _____ a little case in her notebook.
5. She went to a private school _____ a public one.
6. The street we live on is _____ our house.
7. There was a big barn _____ the house.
8. Where were you _____ June of last year?

turned into

The water turned into ice.

The stranger turned into a friend.

turn _____ into

The witch turned the prince into a frog.

burst into

The dead tree burst into flames when the lightning hit.

break into

She was so excited she broke into song.

look into

Our lawyer promised to look into our case and advise us about a solution.

talk into

I talked my sister into going skiing with us this winter.

Finish these sentences. Teachers: Give the students a few minutes to quickly write answers, then go around the group reading their sentences. Make corrections where necessary.

1. The pages of this book _____.
2. The women of our family _____.
3. People of my religion _____.
4. The music of the sixties _____.
5. The city of Los Angeles _____.
6. _____ on the back of my head.
7. The color of your dress _____.
8. What kind of person _____?
9. _____ two boxes of cereal.
10. The price of that suit _____.
11. Both of the children _____.
12. The cry of a baby _____.
13. A gust of wind _____.
14. _____ the howl of a wolf.
15. The touch of his hand _____.
16. The smell of _____.
17. _____ words of anger.
18. _____ of our youth.