

Label the parts of the body on the back of this sheet.

Read these paragraphs about Charlie. Write the answers to the questions. Then read your answer to the teacher. Teachers: Have them write the answer to one question, then read their answer to you. Make corrections. Help them understand how the verbs change in the answer.

This boy is named Charlie. Charlie is a surfer. He is on his surfboard. Charlie has brown hair. His hair does not cover his ears. He has blue eyes. His nose is straight.

What is the boy's name?

What is your name?

What is Charlie doing?

What are you doing?

What color is Charlie's hair?

What color is your hair?

Charlie has blue eyes?

What color are your eyes?

Does Charlie's hair cover his ears?

Does your hair cover your ears?

Is Charlie's nose straight?

Is your nose straight?

Charlie doesn't wear rings on his fingers. He is not married. People who are married usually wear a wedding ring. People wear a wedding ring on their left hand.

Is Charlie married?

Are you married?

Does Charlie wear rings?

Do you wear rings?

Do you wear a wedding ring?

Charlie fell off his surfboard. He hurt his shoulder. His shoulder aches. He is in pain.

Did Charlie fall off his surfboard?

Did Charlie get hurt?

What did Charlie hurt?

Have you hurt yourself?

Does Charlie's arm ache?

Is Charlie in pain?
