

Have the group stand up in a circle. Give these commands and ask them to do them.

- point to your heel
- touch your nose
- rub your chin
- bit your lip
- wet your lips
- bat your eyelashes
- bend your arm at the elbow
- twist your wrist
- bend your knees
- snap your fingers
- wiggle your fingers
- scratch your head
- raise your eyebrows
- sniff the air
- pinch your neck

Match the clothing or accessory with the body part where you would wear it.

socks	eyes
scarf	feet
cap	legs
mittens	hair
rings	head
watch	fingers
lipstick	wrist
glasses	neck
barrette	lips
slacks	arm
bracelet	hands

Tell if these sentences are true or false. If they are false, correct them.

1. Your heel is on your hand.
2. Your knee and your elbow are joints.
3. Your thumb is on your back.
4. Your gums are in your mouth.
5. Your eyes have lashes, brows and lids.
6. Your thigh, calf and shin are part of your arm.
7. Your wrist connects your hand to your arm.
8. Your cheek is on your foot.
9. Your fingers and toes have nails.
10. You use your eyes to smell.

11. You use your nose to see.
12. You taste with your tongue.
13. Your forehead is part of your head.
14. Your stomach, tummy and belly are all the same.
15. You point with your index finger.
16. Your ears have lobes.
17. Your nose has lids and lashes.
18. You put deodorant on your armpit.
19. Your heel and your arch are part of your arm.
20. Your elbow and wrist are part of your leg.
21. Your chin is on your leg.
22. Your knee and your elbow are the same thing.
23. Most people have only one nostril.

Read and discuss with a partner, then report on your discussion to the group.

- a. Someone who cannot see well has poor sight. Do you have poor sight? Do you wear glasses or contacts? Do you have trouble reading without glasses? Do you wear sunglasses to protect your eyes? Someone who cannot see at all is blind. Do you know someone who is blind? What kinds of things help blind people to walk around the city?
- b. If you cannot hear well, you wear hearing aids. Hearing aids fit in your ears. They make sounds louder. They help you to hear well. Do you wear hearing aids? Do your parents or grandparents wear hearing aids?
- c. If your teeth are crooked, you can wear braces. Braces make your teeth straight. Many teenagers in America wear braces. Do many people in your country wear braces?
- d. If your nails get long, you clip them off. Some women polish their nails. They choose pretty colors of polish. They put the polish on their nails. Do you wear fingernail polish? Do you wear toenail polish? Is it OK for children to wear fingernail or toenail polish?