

FUMC ESL 7-11-2013 High Intermediate Lesson OPD pg 155

Convert these questions do positive answers using the past tense.

EX: Did she sing last night? She sang for an hour.
Did you choose the right class?
Did you sleep well?
Did you wake up by 8 AM this morning?
Did you go home after class yesterday?
Did you swim over the weekend?
Did you hear any strange noises?
Did class begin on time today?
Did the phone ring while I was outside?

Use the verb in parenthesis to fill in the blank in the sentence. You will have to change the tense. Notice that all of these sentences use “have” or “has” before the verb. You will need to use what verb tense? _____

- 1.(begin)This class has _____ on time in the past.
- 2.(fight) The soldiers have _____ bravely.
- 3.(quit) Several of my friends have _____ school.
- 4.(freeze) The water in the pond has _____.
- 5.(sting) The bee has _____ the child.
- 6.(grow) The grass has really _____ while we were away.
- 7.(withdraw) I have _____ one hundred dollars in cash from my account.
- 8.(ride) I haven't _____ a bike since I was a child.
- 9.(put) Where has my husband _____ the keys?
- 10.(lend) We have _____ my son money to buy his first house.
- 11.(mistake) I don't know you. You have _____ me for someone else.
- 12.(lead) The teacher has always _____ the children to the cafeteria.

Vocabulary review OPD pg 154 and 155

- 1-What is a pedestrian?
- 2-What does “merge” mean?
- 3-What is a “dead end”?
- 4-What does “yield” mean?
- 5-What is a U-turn?
- 6-What does “no outlet” mean?
- 7-What is GPS?
- 8-The opposite of north is _____.
- 9-The opposite of east is _____.
- 10-The railroad track on the map on page 155 runs parallel to what street?
- 11-What color is the river on the map?
- 12-What two highways intersect on the map?
- 13-Which street is one block north of W. Tilden St.?
- 14-Which street is one block west of S. Canal St.?
- 15-Which street dead ends at the river?
- 16-What direction is between north and east?
- 17-What direction is between south and west?

Read these conversations.

A: Excuse me, could you tell me how far it is to the bus stop?

B: It's quite a ways on foot. It's about a mile from here.

C: Is it far to the library?

D: No, it's quite close. Just around the corner.

E: What is the quickest way to get downtown?

F: There is an express bus that leaves from here in ten minutes. It goes straight downtown.

G: How do I get to the post office?

H: Turn left at the next light. Go about three blocks. You'll see a parking garage on your left. The post office is just beyond that.

J: Can you tell me how to get to the university?

K: I'm sorry, I'm not from here. I don't know the way.

L: Can you direct me to the capitol building?

M: Sure. Turn left, go two blocks then jog right and you'll see the big silver dome of the capitol.

Idioms with "straight", "right" and "left". Match the idiom with the best definition from the list at the bottom.

1-Is anyone here? Come in, I'll be right with you.

2-Joe, I've decided I don't love you. Wow, I wasn't expecting that. That came out of left field.

3-Will you go dancing with us. I'd love to spend time with you, but dancing is not for me. I have two left feet.

4-There are many things that are better left unsaid.

5-I got it straight from the horse's mouth.

6-You shouldn't argue until you get your facts straight.

7-Did you call the police when you saw the accident? No, I was so shook up that I couldn't think straight.

8-I tried to keep a straight face as he told me his car had disappeared from the parking lot. But I broke out laughing because I knew John had moved the car without his knowing it.

9-Joe is such a straight arrow that it never occurs to him that someone is not telling the truth.

a. to get information from the person who is best informed about it.

b. not thinking calmly and rationally

c. understand all the facts

d. things that should not be discussed

e. suddenly from an unexpected source or direction

f. someone who is exceptionally honest and always tries to behave perfectly

g. I'm coming immediately

h. clumsy

i. to look serious even though you are in a funny situation