

To Be verbs: is am are was were

Match the questions to the correct answers.

Who is he?	That is not my purse.
Are you hot?	The sun is shining.
Is this your purse?	That is his key.
Is it raining?	She is a teacher
Is she a student?	He is my brother.
Is that my key.	I am cold.
Are they your parents?	The teacher is in the other room.
Is she an old woman?	My name is John.
Is your name George?	They are my grandparents.
Is the teacher here?	She is very young.

Short forms:	Fill in the blank with am, is or are.
she is = she's	The sky _____ blue today.
he is = he's	There _____ my brother.
it is = it's	We _____ good students.
I am = I'm	Beth _____ at home.
You are = you're	My sister _____ a nurse.
We are = we're	My parents _____ teachers.
they are = they're	I _____ hungry.

Study these adjectives: afraid, angry, cold, hot, hungry, thirsty

Write sentences that fit the pictures.

Write two sentences about yourself.

Sentence 1: Use a "to be" verb + a noun. _____

Sentence 2: Use a "to be" verb + an adjective. _____

Talk Time (Talk to a partner about these questions. Then talk to the whole class. Tell the class what you learned about your partner.)

happy: I am happy when _____.

tired: I get tired when _____.

hungry: When I am hungry, I like to eat _____.

thirsty: When I am thirsty, I like to drink _____.

cold: Is it cold in your country? _____.

angry: What makes you angry? _____.

More adjectives: These adjectives are opposites. Talk about these opposites.

	  Light   Heavy
tall and short	light and heavy	old and young	long and short	fast and slow

