

Today we will review the vocabulary you learned. Read these conversations with a partner and answer the questions in complete sentences.

Beth: I go downtown every Monday. I take English classes. I have a class on Monday at 10 AM. I have a class on Thursday at 10 AM. I get out of class at 12 PM. I am learning English.

Sandra: That is good. I am happy you study English.

1. Where does Beth go every Monday?
2. What classes does Beth take?
3. What days of the week are her classes?
4. When does Beth get out of class?
5. What is Beth learning?
6. Is Sandra happy?

Jane: I had a cup of coffee with my brother.

Luis: How is your brother?

Jane: He is sad. He has a cold. He is sick.

Luis: I'm sorry he is sick.

1. Who did Jane have coffee with?
2. Is her brother happy?
3. What does her brother have?
4. Is Luis happy her brother is sick?

Sara: I ride the bus every morning. I ride the bus to school. And I ride the bus home.

Sam: I go to school on a bicycle. I ride my bicycle five miles.

Sara: I do not have a bicycle. Your bicycle is nice. It is fast.

Sam: I love my bicycle. It is new.

1. Where does Sara go on the bus?
2. How does Sam get to school?
3. Does Sara have a bicycle?
4. Does Sam like his bicycle?
5. Is Sam's bicycle old?

Bill: I do the dishes every day. I do the laundry too.

Mother: That is good, Bill. You are a good man. Who does the housework?

Bill: My wife does the housework.

Mother: She is a good wife.

1. Who does the dishes?

2. Who does the laundry?
3. Who does the housework?
4. Is Bill a good man?
5. Does Bill have a good wife?

Jim: What do you do?

Jenny: I am a teacher. I teach math. I like math. What do you do?

Jim: I am a doctor. My wife is a teacher. She likes teaching.

1. What does Jim do?
2. What does Jenny do?
3. What does Jim's wife do?
4. Who likes math?

Lisa: Who made the dinner?

Liz: I made the dinner.

Lisa: It is very good. Do you like to cook?

Liz: Thank you. I like to cook. I cook every day.

Lisa: I do not like to cook. I eat out every day.

1. Who made the dinner?
2. Who likes to cook.

Lynn: Mother comes to my house on Friday. She takes the children to school. Then she goes to the grocery store. She buys milk and bread. She buys fruit.

Dave: Your mother is nice. She is helpful.

1. Who comes on Friday?
2. Where does Mother take the children?
3. Who goes to the grocery store?
4. What does she buy?
5. Is Mother helpful?