

Review: Teachers-Give the students one command. Wait while they do it. Then ask one student to do the command aloud so everyone can hear. Then proceed to the next command.

1-Introduce yourself to your neighbor. 2-Compliment your neighbor. 3-Ask your neighbor a question.

Read this conversation and tell what it means: (Teachers-call on two students to read the conversation aloud. Then have the whole class read it together, one line at a time. Ask them to tell what each line means.)
