Making Sentences with Phrasal Verbs.

Write a sentence that answers these questions. Use the underlined phrasal verb in your answer.

1-What is the best way to wake up? (i.e. alarm clock, music, breakfast in bed...)

2-How do you work out?

3-Who helps bring up your kids or grandkids?

4-What are good reasons to call off a party?

5-How easy is it to get along with people from other cultures?

6-Who do you look after?

7-What do you look forward to?

8-What is something you have to put up with?

9-Who takes out the garbage?

10-Who picks up the groceries?

Prepositions in Continuous Tenses

In present continuous and past continuous verbs, a prepositional phrase that describes a place is sometimes put in between the "to be" verb and the "ing" verb.

Read these examples:

Where is Kay?

She is in her room studying.

Where is Jack?

I'm not sure where he is right now. Earlier he was in bed reading a book.

I am trying to find Sally.

She's in the den listening to music.

The verbs in these sentences are: is studying, was reading and is listening.

In these sentences, underline the both parts of the verb:

- 1.They were out back emptying the trash.
- 2.She was next door borrowing some sugar.
- 3.We are downstairs painting the basement floor.
- 4.The boys were outside throwing a football.
- 5.Sam was in Las Vegas spending all his money.

Write sentences that fit this pattern with the information given.

- 1.watch TV/ in the den: _____
- 2.take a nap/ on the couch: _____
- 3.walk the dog/at the park: _____
- 4.wash her hair/ upstairs: _____
- 5.clean the stove/ in the kitchen: _____
- 6.shop for groceries/ at the supermarket: _____

Match the vocabulary words on the left with the synonym on the right. A synonym is a word that means the same thing.
