

FUMC ESL 11-7-2013 High Intermediate Lesson

Connecting Words:

and	but	although	so	because	after	before
-----	-----	----------	----	---------	-------	--------

These sentences have the WRONG connecting words. Replace the underlined connecting words with a word from the chart above.

- 1.Sam liked school although he had many friends there.
- 2.Sam graduated first in his class but got a great job in the city.
- 3.He made new friends here, and he still misses his friends from home.
- 4.I was happy there, because I had no job.
- 5.She married him after she didn't love him.
- 6.Jeremy fell in love but he decided to propose to his girlfriend.
- 7.It was very cold, although we decided to go home.
- 8.We picked up the children but we heard there was a tornado in the area.
- 9.Let's get something to eat so the movie.
10. He is still planning to leave, so everyone wants him to stay.

Finish these sentences:

- I am learning English because...
- I will learn English if ...
- I am learning English and...
- I am learning English, but...
- I started learning English after...
- I can speak some English, so...

Adjectives that describe feelings:

resentful	embarrassed	devoted	serene	guilty	disgruntled	bashful
eager	secretive	moody	fortunate	cautious	supportive	reliable

Work in your group to match the correct vocabulary word with each paragraph. Take turns reading the paragraphs. You can only use each word one time. Pick the very best choice.

1. Mary married a wonderful man. They have three beautiful and happy children. Mary feels very _____.
2. Jeff took a job in a factory. The manager told Jeff he would give him a better job after three months. Jeff has worked in the factory for six months. He has not been given to a better job. Jeff is thinking about quitting his job. Jeff is _____.
3. Angela was joking with a friend. She described the man she had a date with. She said his ears were as big as a kangaroo's ears. Suddenly the man appeared. Angela knew he had heard her. She was very _____.
4. Bobbi starts school tomorrow. She loves school. She bought all her supplies. She can't wait for tomorrow. Bobbi is _____ for school to start.
5. Everyone depends on Jack. If you need something, ask Jack. He will always do a good job. Jack is _____.
6. Max has a little brother. His mother buys his little brother toys. His mother doesn't buy Max toys because Max is too old to play with toys. Max is _____ of his little brother.
7. Janice is very shy. Her friends asked her to tell about her vacation. But Janice felt too shy to talk about it. Janice is _____.

8. You never know how Jessie feels. Sometimes she is very happy. Other times she is very sad and depressed. Her emotions go back and forth. Jessie is _____.
9. Mrs. Jones is very helpful to her students. She stays after school to help them with their homework. She gives them good advice if they ask her.
10. Becky loves her husband. She does many nice things for him. She cooks a hot meal every night. She washes his clothes, cleans his shoes and runs his errands. She is very _____ to her husband.
11. Gloria never gets angry or disturbed about things. She is very patient and calm. If she has to wait a long time, she sits quietly.
12. Vic never tells anyone about his life. When people ask about his family, he does not tell them anything. He keeps his life private. He does not share his feelings and thoughts. Some people think Vic is _____.
13. Amy never lets the kids play outside alone. She makes them hold her hand when they cross the street. She wants to be sure they are safe all the time. Amy is _____.
14. James took some money from the cash register. His boss didn't see him take it. No one knows what James did. But James feels bad about taking the money. He knows he did a bad thing. He feels _____.

In your group, answer these questions about YOUR feelings.

What embarrasses you?

Did you resent your little brothers or sisters when you were young? Do you still resent them? Why?

Who is the most reliable member of your family?

Have you ever been disgruntled at your job? Why?

Are you a cautious person?