

Study page 32. Say the words together as you point to the pictures. Teachers, ask the students to cover the answers and point to the correct person when you say the word.

Take turns reading the paragraphs below. Answer the questions.

1. There are three women. The elderly woman has gray hair. She is a senior citizen. The young woman has black hair. Someone between thirteen and nineteen is called a teenager. Teen is the short name for teenager. A youth is not a baby, but not an adult. The middle aged woman has black and gray hair.

- Which woman is oldest?
- Which woman is youngest?

2. There are six people. The tall woman has a blue shirt. The short woman has a red shirt. The woman in between is average height. Someone who is tall is above average height. Someone who is short is below average height.

- Are you average, above average or below average height?
- Are your siblings the same size?
- Who is the tallest in your family?
- Who is the shortest in your family?
- Are your grandparents shorter or taller than your parents?

3. The man in the blue shirt is heavy. The man in the green shirt is thin. The man in the middle is average weight.

- Are your parents heavy or thin?
- Are you heavy or thin?

4. The woman is in the wheelchair. She plays basketball. She can't walk. She is physically challenged. The man with the cane is blind. He lost his sight. He cannot see well. He uses a cane. The cane helps the man. The boy is deaf. He cannot hear. His teacher uses sign language. The boy understands sign language.

- Do you know anyone who is deaf?
- Do you know anyone who is blind?
- Do you know anyone who uses a wheelchair?

5. This family is attractive. The man is handsome. The woman is pretty. The baby is cute. Men are handsome. Men are never pretty. Pretty is a word for girls and women. Everyone can be cute.

- Do you think babies are cute?

6. The woman is pregnant. She will have a baby soon. She is smiling. She is happy about her baby. She wants children. When a woman is pregnant, we say she is expecting. She is expecting a baby.

- Do you want children?
- Do you have children?

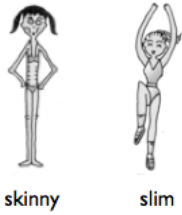

7. The woman has a mole on her face. A mole is a brown spot. The woman is pretty. Many people have moles. Some people have freckles. Freckles are small brown spots. Freckles are smaller than moles. Some people with red hair have freckles. Some people with blond hair have freckles.

- Do you have any moles?
- Do you have any freckles?

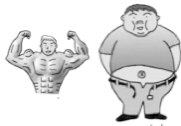

8. The woman has pierced ears. She has holes in her ear. She wears earrings. The man has a tattoo.

- Do you have pierced ears?
- Do you have a tattoo.
- Would you like pierced ears?

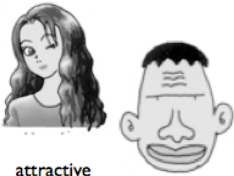

- Would you like a tattoo?
- In your country, do people have pierced ears?
- In your country, do people have tattoos?

Another word for thin is slim. If you are very thin, you might be skinny.

Another name for fat is overweight. Which man is overweight? The other man is muscular. he has big muscles.

The woman is pretty. She is attractive. The man is not attractive. He is ugly.

This boy has freckles. His freckles are on his face.

Matching

| | |
|----------------|-------------------------------|
| pregnant | between thirteen and nineteen |
| overweight | elderly person |
| teen | sight impaired |
| deaf | young person |
| blind | expecting a baby |
| senior citizen | holes in the ears |
| tall | brown spot on the skin |
| youth | not short |
| mole | fat |
| pierced ears | hearing impaired |

