

Look at the house on pages 46-47. This house has two floors. There is a first floor and a second floor. Point to the first floor. Point to the second floor.

This house has a basement. Point to the basement. This house has an attic. Point to the attic.

This house has a yard. Point to the yard. The backyard has a fence. Point to the fence. There is a tall tree in the yard. Point to the tall tree.

There is a kitchen on the first floor. Point to the kitchen. There are cabinets in this kitchen. What do you think is in the cabinets? Are their glasses in the cabinets? Are their dishes in the cabinets? What is inside your cabinets?

The kitchen has a stove. Point to the stove. There is a kettle on top of the stove. Point to the kettle. Use a kettle to boil water for tea. There is a coffee maker and a toaster. You make toast in a toaster.

This toaster made two pieces of toast.

The kitchen has a tile floor. There is a dining area in the kitchen. Point to the dining area. There is a rug in the dining area. Point to the rug. The girl sits at the table. She reads a book. There are more books on the table. The girl studies her books.

Do you study at the table? Do you dine in the kitchen? This house has no dining room. Does your house have a dining room? A dining room is a room for eating. Dine is a verb that means the same as eat.

There is a rug under the table. Do you have a rug in your kitchen?

There is a living room on the first floor. Point to the living room. How many windows are in the living room? One window has an air conditioner in it. Point to the couch. Point to the coffee table. Point to the entertainment center. Point to the chair.

The woman has a baby on her lap. What is the woman doing?

Point to the stairs. Go up the stairs. Now you are upstairs. Go down the stairs. Now you are downstairs. Is the kitchen upstairs or downstairs? Is the bathroom upstairs or downstairs? There is a bannister. Use the bannister to hold on as you walk upstairs. Do you hold on to the bannister when you climb stairs? How many steps are on the stairs?

Upstairs there are three bedrooms. The master bedroom is for the parents. It is the biggest bedroom in the house. The door in the master bedroom is closed. The door in the bathroom is open. Point to the bed. Point to the pillows on the bed. Point to the bedspread. Point to the pictures. There are two pictures. The pictures are hung on the wall. Did you hang pictures on your walls? There is a lamp and a small table. Point to the dresser. Point to the mirror. What do you keep in a dresser?

There is a bathroom next to the bedrooms. There is a rug in the bathroom. Do you have a rug in your bathroom? What color is your rug? Point to the sink. Point to the toilet. Point to the towel bar. Point to the bathtub. Point to the shower curtain. Do you have a shower curtain?

Point to the children's room. It has twin beds. There is a shelf for books. There is a ladder in this bedroom. It goes to the attic. The attic is the space underneath the roof. Who is standing on the ladder? What is in the attic? The attic is for storing things. It has storage space. Next to the children's bedroom is a baby's room. Point to the crib. Point to the toy box. Point to the rug. Point to the curtains. Do you have curtains in your house?

Go downstairs. Find the stairs to the basement. What is in the basement? What is the woman doing? She has a laundry basket. She will carry the clothes upstairs in her laundry basket. In Austin, houses do not have basements. In your country, does your house have a basement? Do you own a washer and dryer?

Go upstairs. Go outside. Point to the driveway. The driveway is for the car. The car is parked inside the garage. Do you have a garage? Do you park your car in a garage?

There is a work bench in the garage. How many trash cans are there? When it is trash day, you must put your trash cans on the street. The garbage truck will come. The garbage men will put the trash in the truck. They will leave your empty cans. When you come home, you put them away.

Do you live in an apartment or a house? Where do you take your trash?

This house has a roof. This roof does not leak. It is bad to have a roof that leaks.

How many chimneys does this house have?

This is a faucet. This faucet leaks. It is a leaky faucet.

What kind of truck is this? What does it do?

This is a work bench. It holds tools. Do you have a work bench? Do you like to work with tools?

This is a two car garage. It has two doors. You can park two cars inside. There is a carport on the side. You can park another car here. A carport is covered, but has no walls.