Read these conversations with a partner.

Lee: I have to get up at 7 AM tomorrow.
Mom: There is an alarm clock on the bedside table. Set the alarm for 7.

Tom: I'm cold.
Anna: Here's an extra blanket. This will make you warm.

Ray: The bed's uncomfortable.
Mia: The mattress is very soft.

Amir: Should I close the curtains?
Marty: Leave the curtains open. Close the mini-blinds. No one can see in.

Bill: My sweater isn't in the drawer.
Mary: I hung your sweater in the closet. Look there for it.

Read this description of a bedroom.

I have a dresser in my room. It is next to my bed. It has three drawers. I keep underwear in the top drawer, t-shirts in the middle drawer and shorts in the bottom drawer. I have photos of my girlfriend on top of my dresser. I have an alarm clock and a lamp on my nightstand. A mirror hangs above my dresser. I keep my shoes in the closet. I have a window over my bed. I like to keep the curtains open.
