

Study the verbs below. Choose one of the verbs. Demonstrate the verb and ask them to guess what you are doing.

Which verb would you use in these sentences.

- _____ the bread dough.
- _____ the cheese.
- _____ the eggs.
- _____ the water from the rice.
- _____ the coffee.
- When the water _____, add the rice.
- _____ a little salt on the top.
_____ two eggs into a bowl.
- _____ the water into the glasses.
- _____ the apple into pieces.
- _____ the cake in a 350 degree oven.

Talk in your group about how you prepare these foods.

chicken:

eggs:

vegetables:

Name some things you bake.

Name some things you fry.

Practice making these words plural.

one city, two _____ one chief, two _____ one half, two _____ one mouse, two _____ one foot, two _____ one thief, two _____

Tell the differences in meaning between these sentence pairs.

1. We have little money. We have a little money.
2. They know few people. They know a few people.
3. She has little patience. She has a little patience.
4. I speak some Spanish. I speak a little Spanish
5. Mary asked few questions. Mary asked a few questions.

Choose the answer that fits in the blank.

1. Linda learned to skate quickly. At first, she fell down _____ times, but now she very rarely falls down.
a. a little b. few c. a few
2. The police didn't have a good description of the bank robber. _____ witnesses saw him.
a. few b. a few c. little
3. Please pass the cream. I like _____ cream in my coffee.
a. a few b. a little c. very few
4. Before the hurricane, the stores were crowded with people buying supplies. By the time I got to a store, _____ flashlight batteries were left, and _____ bottled water was available.
a. very few/very little b. very little/very little c. very little/very few