

Homophones are words that are pronounced the same but spelled differently. Find the homophone errors in these sentences.

1. Things are not as they seam.
2. On the hole, he's a nice person.
3. He new better, but he did it anyway.
4. Always try to buy low and cell high.
5. Didn't you here me call you?
6. Do not medal in the affairs of others.
7. Do you really knead the money?
8. I will have a stake sandwich on rye bread.
9. In church, we always sing a him before the lesson.
10. When his car broke down, he called for a toe truck.
11. Last night we went to the maul to try on shoes.
12. He was not aloud to stay up late at night.
13. My son has groan two inches this year.
14. He scent flowers to his mother on Mother's Day.
15. It seams like the weather is getting cooler.
16. I love the sent of lavender.
17. Please read this paragraph allowed.
18. If you need dough too much, it gets tough.
19. The tiger malled the boy who was teasing him.
20. Please tell hymn to come inside.
21. Susan cannot always here the telephone ring
22. The injured animal growned in pain.
23. The orange steaks mark the boundary of the property.
24. The big truck toed the smaller one into the body shop.

Choose the right ending for these sentences.

1. He will meet you _____ the airport.
a-in front b-ahead c-in front of d-behind of
2. If you want to be healthy, you _____ smoke.
a-needn't b-couldn't c-shouldn't d-mustn't
3. He's _____ politics.
a-interested b-interesting c-interested to d- interested in
4. Would you like me to ____ the children next week?
a-look to b-look at c-look after d-look into
5. What _____ tomorrow evening?
a-will do b-are you do c-are you going d-are you going to do