

FUMC ESL 6-9-2014 OPD 78

Look at the vocabulary on page 78. Which tool would you use to:

1. _____ beat eggs or cream
2. _____ remove water from cooked pasta or vegetables
3. _____ spoon soup or sauces out of a pot
4. _____ cut up small fruits and vegetables
5. _____ cover pots and pans
6. _____ keep food fresh
7. _____ handle hot pots
8. _____ stir soups or sauces
9. _____ cook food slowly on top of the stove
10. _____ bake desserts in the oven
11. _____ contain ingredients you will mix up
12. _____ time the cooking
13. _____ end up with tiny pieces of garlic

Fill in the blank with a vocabulary word

- 1-To open a can, you would use a _____.
- 2-To peel vegetables, you would use a _____.
- 3-Use a _____ to grate cheese.
- 4-Use a _____ to roll out the cookie dough.
- 5-Put the leftovers in a _____.
- 6-Cover the pot with a _____.
- 7-Carve the ham with a _____.
- 8-Beat the eggs with an _____.
- 9-Mix the ingredients in the _____.

Read these paragraphs, then turn your page over and tell your group what happened. Then discuss the meaning of the underlined verbs. Some of these verbs like “get off” and “ended up” are phrasal verbs. They are used as verbs, but contain an adverb.

Anna baked cookies last night, but she forgot to grease the cookie sheet first. The cookies stuck to the pan. She couldn't get them off in one piece. She ended up with a bunch of cookie pieces. She ended up throwing them away.

Jennifer cooked dinner for her friend Jane last night. Jennifer fried chicken and served it with french fries and fried onion rings. Jane didn't eat much of her dinner. Jennifer found out later that Jane doesn't eat fried food. Jane knows fried foods are not healthy, so she does not eat them. Jane ate just enough of the dinner to be polite. Jennifer felt bad. Next time she asks Jane to dinner she will serve healthier choices.

After dinner, Jim decided he wanted some coffee. He asked his wife, Jenny, if there was any coffee. Jenny said there was no coffee made, but that Jim could make some. Jim went in the kitchen but couldn't find the coffee. Jenny told him there was a new can of coffee in the cabinet over the stove. Jim couldn't find the can opener. Jenny told him there was a can opener in the drawer beside the sink. Jim couldn't find the coffee pot. Jenny told him it was in the pantry. Jim didn't know if he should put hot water or cold water in the pot. Jenny said, “Oh good grief. Forget it. I'll make you some coffee. It's easier for me to do it myself.”

Miriam was hungry. There was no food in the refrigerator. Her husband had eaten up all the leftovers. She decided to make potatoes. She peeled off the skin. Then she cut up the potatoes. She turned on the fire and put the water on to boil. But the water boiled over and made a mess on the cooktop.

Use the list of phrasal verbs below to fill in the blanks of the sentences.

find out	end up	get off	cut up
peel off	eat up	turn on	boil over

1. The children _____ all the cookies.
2. _____ the bus at 12th and Lavaca.
3. The soup _____ and made a sticky mess on the stove.
4. Please _____ the meat for the children. They can't chew big pieces.
5. She _____ her bathing suit and jumped in the shower.
6. We _____ going to the movie after dinner.
7. They didn't _____ about the festival until it was over.
8. _____ the oven and I will put the cookies in to bake.