

Use OPD page 96

Study the vocabulary on page 96.

XS means _____

S means _____

M means _____

L means _____

XL means _____

1. A XXL is a double extra large. That means it is bigger than an extra large.
2. What size shirt do you wear?
3. Do you like shirts that are too big?
4. Do you wear tight fitting shirts?

Teachers: Explain the types of sweaters listed.

Students: List the four kinds of sweaters: _____

5. Do you wear turtleneck sweaters in the summer?
6. Do you wear shirts under your sweater?
7. Are the sweaters on sale?
8. Do you prefer crew neck or scoop neck sweaters?
9. Do you ever wear V neck sweaters?

Teachers: Discuss the four kind of shirts.

Students: List the four types of shirts _____

10. What kind of shirt are you wearing now?
11. What kind of shirt do you wear when it is hot?
12. What kind of shirt do you wear when it is cold?
13. Do you ever wear sleeveless shirts?

Teachers: Explain the four types of skirts

Students: List the four types of skirts: _____

14. Do you like to wear pants or skirts?
15. What length do you wear your skirts?

Look at the patterns.

16. What is the pattern with flowers called?
17. What is the pattern with dots called?
18. What is the pattern with stripes called?
19. What is the pattern that is all one color called?
20. What is the pattern with little hearts called?
21. What is the pattern with small boxes called?
22. Which pattern do you prefer?
23. Which pattern do you own?

Discuss with your class:

1. Do you think it is OK for girls to wear short skirts?
2. Do you like t-shirts or shirts that button up?
3. Do you wear mini-skirts?
4. Is 50% off the same as half-price?
5. Did your mother tell you what to wear when you were young?
6. Did your school allow sleeveless shirts and short skirts?
7. Many schools have a dress code. Talk about your school's dress code.

Read this conversation:

Customer: I am looking for a V-neck sweater in size medium.

Salesperson: Here is a medium sweater.

Customer: This is a crew neck sweater. I want a V-neck sweater.

Salesperson: Do you like this one. It's a V-neck. And it's a medium.

Customer: I don't like red. Do you have one in blue?

Salesperson: I have a blue one. But it is a turtleneck.

Customer: Do you have any V-neck sweaters in medium?

Salesperson: I only have this red one in your size. But it is 50% off.

Customer: That's a good price. I will take the red one.

- 1.What size sweater did the customer want?
- 2.What type sweater did the customer want?
- 3.What was wrong with the red sweater?
- 4.Why did the customer buy the red sweater?

OPD Pg 97

Look at the vocabulary on page 97. Then answer these questions.

- 1.What is the opposite of loose?
- 2.What is the opposite of narrow?
- 3.What is the opposite of too small?
- 4.What is the opposite of high?
- 5.What is the opposite of light?
- 6.What is the opposite of expensive?
- 7.I spilled coffee on my sweater. Now it is _____.
- 8.This blouse costs $50.00. It is too _____.
- 9.There is no button here. The button is _____.
- 10.This zipper does not work. This zipper is _____.
- 11.These jeans have a tear. They are _____.

Read this conversation:

Customer: I have a complaint

Clerk: What is the problem?

Customer: I bought these jeans yesterday. The zipper on these jeans is broken. I do not want them.

Clerk: Do you have a receipt?

Customer: No. I don't have a receipt. But the tags are still on the jeans. You can see I bought them here. Clerk: You can exchange them for another pair.

Verb Study

tear was/were torn

break was/were broken

- 1.(tear)Don't _____ your blouse.
- 2.(tear)She didn't _____ her blouse.
- 3.(tear) She _____ her blouse at the party last night.
- 4.(tear)You are _____ your blouse on that nail.
- 5.(tear)This blouse is _____.
- 6.(break)Be careful with that baseball. Baseballs _____ windows.
- 7.(break) Did the baseball _____ the window?
- 8.(break) It did _____ the window.
- 9.(break) Did my baseball _____ her window?
- 10.(break) Look, my window is _____. How did it _____?
- 11.(break) I'm sorry. My baseball _____ your window.

Discussion:

1. Where do you shop for clothes?
2. Do you sew your own clothes?
3. Do you buy clothes for your spouse?
4. What stores have expensive clothes?
5. Do people wear different clothes here?