

Work with a partner. Read the conversation. Then switch roles and read it again. Then answer the questions. Use OPD page 108 to help you understand these conversations.

Conversation 1

Jill: Do you have any shampoo? I need to wash my hair.

Cindy: There is some shampoo and conditioner in the shower.

Jill: I forgot my comb and brush. Do you have a comb or brush I can borrow?

Cindy: There is a comb in the top drawer. You can use it. There is also a hair dryer in the drawer.

Jill: Thanks. I will use it to dry my hair.

1. Jill wanted to _____ her hair. She needed _____.
2. Cindy said there was shampoo in the _____. There was also _____ in the shower.
3. Jill forgot her _____ and _____.
4. There was a comb in the _____. There was also a _____ there.
5. Jill will use the hair dryer to _____ her hair.

Conversation 2

Susan: My hair is very straight. I wish I had curls like you.

Brenda: My hair is straight too. I use a curling iron. I make curls in my hair with the curling iron.

Susan: Do you use hair gel?

Brenda: I don't use gel. It makes my hair stiff. I like my hair to feel soft.

1. Susan's hair is _____. She wishes she had _____ like Brenda.
2. Brenda's hair is _____. She uses a _____ to make curls.
3. Why doesn't Brenda use hair gel?

Conversation 3

Jane: I don't like scented soap. It makes my skin itch. I only use unscented soap.

Jo: I love scented soap. I buy lemon scented soap. It makes me smell fresh. I don't have any skin allergies. Do you use hypoallergenic soap?

Jane: I use soap for sensitive skin. It prevents itchy skin.

1. Jane doesn't like _____ soap because it makes her _____ itch.
2. Jo likes _____ scented soap. It makes her smell _____.
3. Does Jo have skin allergies?
4. Does Jane use special soap?
5. Jane hates _____ skin.

TEACHERS: After the students are finished, call on them to tell what happened in the conversations in their own words.

Talk in a small group:

1. What do you do to style your hair? Do you use a curling iron or straightener? Do you use gel? Do you use hair spray? Do you color your hair? Do you use bobby pins or hair clips in your hair? Do you ever make a pony tail?
2. Do you use scented or unscented soaps? Why?
3. Where do you buy your soaps, shampoos and conditioners? Which are your favorite brands?
4. How much time do you spend on hygiene each day? Do women spend more time than men on hygiene?

Work with a partner. Circle the verb that is the wrong tense. Then correct it. Teachers check the answers.

1. I looked and looked for the ESL classroom. I finally find the right room.
2. We ate dinner early. Later, we open the cookies and ate them.
3. Have you spoke to your mother this week?
4. Last month, I travel to Mexico to see my family.
5. Have you took a shower today?
6. We always spending the holidays at my parents.
7. It has rain every day this week.
8. She has already leave.
9. I have study all the vocabulary for the test.
10. They sitted in class for over an hour, but the teacher did not come.
11. Have you chose a school for your child?
12. We haven't wash all the dishes yet.