

OPD pg 110

Work with a partner. Match the left column with the right.

head hurts	fever
throw up	sore throat
tiny red marks on your skin	toothache
temperature over 98.6	chills
ear hurts	headache
throat hurts	nasal congestion
painful tooth	vomit
shivering and can't get warm	earache
nose stopped up	rash

Read these conversations two times. Change roles.

A: Your arm is swollen and red. What happened?

B: An ant bit me. Then I scratched it. I think it is infected now.

A: You should see a doctor. Insect bites can get infected when you scratch them.

A: That is a big bruise on your leg. What happened?

B: I ran into the table. I bruised my leg. I bruise easily.

A: I cut my finger. It is bleeding. Do you have a bandaid?

B: Yes. Wash your hand with soap. Then I will put on a bandaid.

A: My sunburn hurts. I should have worn sunscreen.

B: It is really red. It will blister. You should put some cream on it.

A: I burned my hand on the stove. It made a blister.

B: That looks painful.

A: Your nose is bleeding.

B: Oh gosh. I always get a bloody nose in high altitude.

A: Here is a Kleenex.

A: I rolled my ankle. I think I sprained it.

B: Can you walk or should I carry you.

A: It's not that bad. I think I can walk if I can lean on you.

B: Yes, of course.

Study these phrasal verbs:1. I'm coming down with a cold.2. I eat oranges to fight off colds.3. I can't getover this cold.4. She was unconscious. She came to in the hospital.5. When I eat tomatoes I break out in a rash.6. I got run down and caught a cold.

7. My finger swelled up after I burned it.

8. I gave her some Coke, but she couldn't keep it down.

9. That rash should clear up after a few days.

10. She's in critical condition, but she should pull through.

Use these nouns and their verb forms in a sentence.

breath - breathe blood - bleed

cut - cut