

FUMC ESL 9-28-2015 Level 3 Lesson

Word order in questions and statements: Mark the sentences that are incorrect. Then write a correct version of the sentence beside it.

Where Tom go?
Where did Tom go?
Where Tom is going?
Is Tom gone?

No one knows where Tom went.
Where Tom went, no one knows.
Did Tom went with you?
Tom didn't go with you, did he?

We need to know where Tom is.
Where Tom is?
We are knowing where he is.
Where Tom went is a secret.

I don't know where lives he.
I don't know where him lives.
He with Bob lives.
Bob lives with he.

Who is at the door?
I wonder who is at the door.
It's Tom!
Tom, where you been?

Tell us what happened.
We were worried because you was gone so long.
You should have told us where you were go.
You could have leave a message.

What did Tom say?
What did Tom said?
I couldn't hear what said Tom.
I couldn't hear what him said.

Participial Adjectives: Mark the correct sentence

What Tom said surprising us.
We were shocking to learn where Tom went.
Tom is terrifying of dogs.
Some terrifying dogs chased Tom.

Tom was frightening of the dogs.
Tom was climbing a tree.
Tom stayed in the tree for hours.
Did Tom he tell the truth?

We were satisfying that Tom told the truth.
It was surprising that bad dogs were out on the street.

Look at the vegetables (veggies) in OPD pg 69, 70 and 71

1. Talk about the vegetables that you eat the most. Talk about how you prepare them. Do you eat many raw vegetables? Which ones do you eat raw?
2. If someone says you are full of beans, they mean a-you don't know what you are talking about      b-you ate too much      c-you are overweight
3. If you are a couch potato, you a-love potatoes      b-eat a lot of junk food      c-spend a lot of time just sitting around
4. When two people are very much alike, we say they are a-peas and carrots      b-two peas in a pod      c-matched melons
5. What are the three types of meat shown in the picture?
6. What is the difference between steak and ground beef?
7. What are the four types of pork shown?
8. Do people in your country eat more beef, pork or lamb?
9. The other name for a chicken leg is _____.
10. What kinds of food do you find in a deli?