

Charlotte's Web 8/1/2016 Chapters 11-16

Continue to use my suggestions to prepare for book club (figuring out new words, noting favorite or confusing passages, suggesting questions to discuss).

If you need to read the suggestions again, they are on the website fumcesl.org - the lesson titled: 7/18/2016 Charlotte's Web Reading Assignment.

Phrasal Verbs and other Phrases from the reading:

Chapter 11

put up - to can fruits or vegetables

all in all - everything considered

Chapter 12

call a meeting - to ask that people assemble for a meeting; to request that a meeting be held

call the roll - to call the names of people from a list of those enrolled, expecting them to reply if they are present.

fall for - to believe something that is not true; to believe something without reservation get sick of - tired of someone or something, especially something that one must do again and again or someone or something that one must deal with repeatedly.

look out for (himself) - see to one's own best interests; do what is best for you and do not consider what is best for others break it up - Stop it!

Chapter 13

show up - be clearly visible

out of the question - Impossible, not worth considering

in deep - Seriously involved

Chapter 15

live up to - to fulfill expectations; To live or act in accordance with threw himself into - to do (something) with enthusiasm and vigor

go to his head - make one proud or vain

stuck up - have a high opinion of oneself

Chapter 16

pass out - faint

come to - to become conscious; to wake up

