Talking About the Future

We use future tense to talk about the future. EX: I will ask my mother. We will go to bed tonight.
But we can also use the present continuous to talk about the future. EX: I am going to bed at 9 PM. We are going to the park tomorrow.
In sentences with "when", we talk about the future using present tense. Notice that "when" sentences have two parts.
EX: I'll phone you when I get home.
main part: I'll phone you when part: when I get home
The first part of the sentence uses future tense (will phone). But the second part does not use future tense. It uses present tense "get".
We don't say, "I'll phone you when I will get home.

More examples:
We will go out when it stops raining. NOT when it will stop raining
I will go to medical school when I finish college.

The same thing happens after while / before / after / as soon as / until Examples:
I will take lots of pictures while I travel in Spain.
Before I go, I'll put on my raincoat.
I will wait here until she comes home.
After I return, I will help you cook dinner.
As soon as Mother gets here, we'll go.

Finish these sentences. The teacher will ask you to write some of your sentences on the board.
