

FUMC ESL 3-14-2019 High Intermediate Lesson

Discuss: Demonstrate a gesture to communicate one of the meanings below. Ask your fellow students to tell what you are saying with your gesture.

1. I'm bored.
2. I'm SO excited.
3. I'm mad.
4. Stop talking!
5. Talk more quietly, please.
6. Leave immediately!
7. Don't touch me.
8. Come here, quickly!
9. Sorry, I'm short on time.
10. What! I can't believe that.
11. May I help you?
12. You go first.
13. You take my seat.
14. Call me.
15. Darn. I'm disappointed.
16. I can't hear.
17. Fingers crossed!
18. A tiny bit
19. It's just OK, not great.
20. Please bring the bill.

Using THE: In the sentences below, decide if you should use A, AN, or THE in the blank. Caution-some of the sentences do NOT need any word in the blank. You may work with a partner.

1. Lisa is _____ younger of two children.
2. Lisa is _____ younger than her brother.
3. Can you repeat _____ question?
4. Did you ask me _____ question?
5. May I ask _____ question?
6. _____ question is, "Does she want to marry me?"
7. Can you tell me _____ time?
8. His office is on _____ first floor.
9. We live on _____ street near the center of town.
10. We live on _____ same street.
11. Do you live in town or in _____ country.
12. Excuse me, where is _____ nearest bank?
13. Are these books _____ same? No, they're _____ different.
14. My brother is _____ soldier in _____ army.
15. Do you think _____ police did a good job with the investigation?
16. Write your name at _____ top of the page, and sign your name at _____ bottom.
17. My house is at _____ end of this street.
18. Do you play _____ piano?

19. I listen to _____ radio a lot, but I never watch _____ TV.
20. What did you have for _____ dinner last night?
21. We had _____ dinner at a Chinese restaurant.
22. I'm not working _____ next week. Let's take a road trip.
23. My favorite sport is _____ football.
24. Kick _____ to me.
25. _____ flowers in this garden are beautiful.
26. I don't really like _____ flowers.
27. Do you know much _____ history?
28. Do you know much about _____ history of this place?
29. Everyone needs _____ friends.
30. Everyone needs _____ friend.
31. I don't know _____ words to this song.
32. _____ money doesn't always buy _____ happiness.
33. We are going hiking in _____ Alps.
34. I've been to _____ north of Italy, but never _____ south.
35. I've been to _____ northern Italy, but never _____ southern Italy.

Pronouncing TION and SION: Fill in the blank, then read these sentences. Teachers: Check their spelling.

1. If you educate someone, you give them an _____.
2. If you graduate, you go to _____ ceremonies.
3. If you celebrate something, you have a _____.
4. If you donate something, you make a _____.
5. If you demonstrate something, you give a _____.
6. If you create something, you make a _____.
7. If you expect something, you have an _____.
8. If you can easily imagine something, you have a good _____.
9. If you destroy something, you create _____.
10. If you produce something, you have a _____.
11. If you are passionate about something, you have _____.
12. If you are tense about something, you feel _____.
13. If you collide with something, you have a _____.
14. If something explodes, there is an _____.
15. If you are able to persuade someone, you are very good at _____.

Finish these sentences:

1. No one could ever persuade me to:
2. My highest level of education is:
3. I deserve a celebration for:
4. I could demonstrate how to:
5. If I was asked to create something, I would: