

Students: Read the story aloud, one line at a time. Answer these questions about the story.

1. What day is it?
2. What does Tanya need to do?
3. Is the laundromat on Washington Street?
4. What are the people in the laundromat doing?
5. How many loads of laundry does Tanya have?
6. Does Tanya see two empty machines?
7. Does Tanya want to wait for another machine?
8. Does Tanya put in a red sweater and white pants?
9. What color is Tanya’s sweater now?

Put the words in the right category.

blue            pants            shirt            waiting            dress            pink            sitting washing        going            red            sweater            white

COLORS	ACTIONS	CLOTHES

Match the opposites:

puts in	a. outside
cheaper	b. starts
stops	c. full
inside	d. interesting
empty	e. takes out
boring	f. few
many	g. more expensive

Practice the dialog.

That isn’t a good idea?

What isn’t?

You’re putting black pants and a white sweater in one washing machine.

But I don't have a lot of laundry.

Your sweater will turn gray.

It will?

Yes. Wash whites and colors separately.

Oh. OK. Thanks.

Listening: Underline the word you hear.

1. The people are (inside - outside).
2. She has (one load - two loads) of laundry.
3. He is (waiting - working) at the laundromat.
4. His (jeans - jackets) are dirty.
5. Her (shirt - skirt) is white.

Underline the color you hear.

- |            |        |
|------------|--------|
| 1. green   | gray   |
| 2. black   | brown  |
| 3. purple  | pink   |
| 4. yellow  | white  |
| 5. orange  | red    |
| 6. brown   | blue   |
| 7. green   | purple |
| 8. white   | orange |
| 9. pink    | red    |
| 10. yellow | gray   |

Answer these questions. (Teachers, ask each student the question so they get used to hearing the sentence. Students should answer in complete sentences.)

1. Where is the nearest laundromat? Do you ever go?
2. Do you have a washing machine at home?
3. Do you wash your own clothes?
4. When do you wash your clothes?
5. Do you have a white sweater? Do you have red pants?
6. What are you wearing now?
7. What color clothes do you like?
8. Do you have any clothes that have turned a different color?
9. What do you do when you wait for something?
