Introduce yourself. Tell where you are from and where you live now. Tell what month is your favorite and why.

Special Delivery Chapter 3: A Busy Evening

Tonight, Gina is very busy. She delivers a lot of food. She takes the large pizza to First Avenue. She takes some pasta to Second Avenue. She takes a salad and bread to Third Avenue. Then she delivers eight more orders.

Gina receives some good tips. The family on First Avenue gives her $5.00. The woman on Second Avenue gives her $7.00. The man on Third Avenue gives her $4.00. The other customers tip too. Gina is happy. Delivering food is fun.

Gina returns to La Roma at 9:45 PM. The restaurant closes at 10. Gina feels tired now. She yawns and rubs her eyes. At 9:50 the phone rings again. "Uh-oh," says Gina. "I hope it's not a delivery."

1. Did all the customers tip Gina?
2. Who tipped Gina the most?
3. Does Gina like delivering food?

Choose the correct word from the table to fill in the blanks in the sentences.

Customer: Great! How much do we owe you?

Gina: That will be $15.00,

Customer: Here's $20.00.

Gina: I can give you change for that.

Customer: That's OK. Keep the change.

Gina: OK. Thanks very much.

Special Delivery Chapter 4: Another Delivery

Gina picks up the phone. "Hello?" says a woman's voice. "I'd like a small pizza, please."

"Okay," says Gina.

"I know it's late, " says the caller. "But can you please deliver it?"

Gina isn't happy about another delivery. But she says, "Sure." Then she gets the woman's address. Gina tells her the pizza costs $12.00. The woman gives Gina her credit card number.

Twenty minutes later, the pizza is ready. Gina needs to deliver it right now. Gina gets her jacket and purse. She gets the keys to the La Roma van. She also remembers the small pizza. She opens the front door. "Goodbye!" she says to her workers. "This is my last delivery!"

Customer: I'd like to order a small pepperoni pizza.

Gina: OK. That will be $12.00. You can pick it up in twenty minutes.

Customer: I know it's late, but can you please deliver it?

Gina: OK. Give me your credit card number.

Customer: Thank you so much. My card number is 883-2893-1124. My address is 4040 Third Avenue.

Gina: I'll be there in about thirty minutes.

Customer: Why does it take so long?

Gina: The pizza cooks for twenty minutes. Then I have to drive to your house.

Discuss:

1-Gina was very tired and looking forward to going home. Should Gina have told the customer it was too late for delivery?

2-Do you think it is safe for Gina to deliver pizza at night? Would this be safe in the city where you live?

Verbs to Nouns: Many English nouns have verb forms. Read the sentence. Make a sentence using the underlined noun as a verb. Be aware that sometimes the verb form has a different meaning than the noun form. Also note that in some nouns to verbs, the pronunciation changes. For example "produce" as a noun has the accent on the first syllable. As a verb, the accent is on the second syllable.

EX: I took a swallow of the milk. Verb form: My dog swallowed a frog.

Blow your whistle and the dog will come. Verb form: I whistle and the dog comes.
