

FUMC ESL 9-13-2020 High Beginning and Low Intermediate Online Lesson

Introduce yourself. Tell where you are from and where you live now. How old were you when you took your first plane trip? Where did you fly to?

Pronunciation: Pronounce the words in the same cell.

fight - flight - fright	baggage - luggage - garbage	arrive - arrival - arrived
tray - delay - decay	way - weight - wide	miss - mist - mix
gate - grade - great	ladder - letter - later	rest - nest - wrist

These sentences have errors. Correct them.

1. Thank you for to teach me.
2. I'm calling for asking about your English class.
3. Thank you for your wonderful works.
4. I am writing a letter of complain.
5. Why for did you call?
6. I feel his getting better.
7. The weather was rain yesterday.
8. Luke and Steve were work late last night.
9. My mother is never traveled by plane.
10. Ric has been here since six months.
11. I'm so hunger.
12. A thief is a person which steals things.
13. I don't like people which never stop talking.
14. I'm not interested for sports.
15. I tell the kids not to talk to strange.
16. I'll lend to you some money.
17. Sometimes we're going away on weekends.
18. Joe was sleep so we left.
19. I call you tomorrow.
20. I'm never reading newspapers.
21. I'm taking a trip on November.
22. Lisa saw Sam at Monday night.
23. My exam is in May 15th.
24. My brother got married on September.
25. I always feel tired at the evening.

Conversation: A Helpful Neighbor

Jan: Pardon me. I'm sorry to bother you, but I'm trying to find a post office. Could you tell me if there is one near here?

Lyn: Yes. There's a post office just up the street.

Jan: Up this street?

Lyn: Yes. It is one block away. Are you new here?

Jan: Yes. I moved in last week.

Lyn: That's nice. You'll like it here. People are very friendly.

Jan: Yes, I've noticed that. Thank you for your help.

Lyn: Any time. Do you have any other questions?

Jan: Yes, I do. Where can I buy some medicine for my cold.

Lyn: There is a Walgreens pharmacy on First St. Ask the pharmacist what you should take.

Jan: Thank you so much. You are very helpful.

Lyn: It's my pleasure.

1. Lyn says, "I'm sorry to _____ you."
2. How far away is the post office?
3. Lyn asks about a _____ office and a place to buy medicine for her _____.
4. Was Lyn helpful?
5. What questions did you have when you arrived here?

Jan: Lyn, I have another question.

Lyn: What is it?

Jan: Are we allowed to grill on the balcony?

Lyn: No. The management is afraid of fires. But there is a grill in the park you can use.

Jan: I didn't introduce myself before. My name is Jan Chen.

Lyn: It's nice to meet you, Jan. I am Lyn Brown.

1. What was Jan's question?
2. Can Jan grill on the balcony?
3. Where can Jan grill?
4. What are their names?

Jan: Hello, Lyn. How are you today?

Lyn: I'm fine. It's nice to see you, Jan.

Jan: I have a favor to ask. I am going out of town for two weeks. I have ordered a coat and some boots from the store. They will be delivered while I am away. Could you put the packages inside your apartment. I'm afraid someone will steal them.

Lyn: Yes, of course. I will watch for your packages. I will keep them until you return.

Jan: Thanks so much. You have been so helpful to me.

1. What favor is Jan asking?
2. Why does Jan need help?
3. What is Jan afraid will happen?
4. What does Lyn mean when she says she will "watch for" the packages?
5. Do you watch your neighbors house when they go away?
6. If your neighbor had a package delivered while they were away, what would you do?

Special Delivery: Chapter 5 - A Big Surprise

Gina gets into the La Roma van. She drives for a few minutes. Finally, she sees an apartment building.

Gina parks on the street. Then she picks up the small pizza and gets out.

The customer lives on the second floor. Gina walks up the stairway. She finds Apartment 2B and knocks on the door. There is no answer. Gina knocks again. "Hello!" she says. "Pizza delivery!"

Gina knocks louder. At last, a young woman answers the door. The woman is pregnant. She looks worried. There are tears in her eyes.

"Good evening," says Gina with a smile. "I have your pizza."

"I don't need a pizza now," says the woman. "I need help!"

Chapter 6 - Helping

The woman bends over and groans. She is in pain. "The baby..." she says. "It's three weeks early...but it's coming!"

"I'll call 911!" says Gina.

"Please don't do that," says the woman. "It takes too much time."

Sadly, this woman is alone. She has no one to help her. But Gina can help. The hospital is nearby. They can drive there in ten minutes.

"Yes, I can," says Gina. "Let's go!"

Gina carries the woman's bag. She also carries the small pizza. Slowly, they walk down the stairs. Then they get into the La Roma van. The woman groans again.

"Please wait until we get to the hospital!" says Gina. "I deliver Italian food. But I don't deliver babies."

1. The woman doesn't want pizza. She wants _____.
2. Why does the woman need help?
3. Why doesn't the woman want Gina to call 911?
4. What does Gina do to help the woman?
5. What does Gina say she doesn't deliver?
6. What would you have done if you were Gina?
7. How do you think the woman feels right now?

Discuss:

1. Do you live nearby a hospital? a grocery store? a playground?
2. Do you have friends or family that live nearby?
3. Do you worry when you're home alone?