

FUMC ESL 1-14-2021 High Beginning and Low Intermediate Online Lesson

Introduce yourself. Tell your name. Tell where you are from. Tell where you live now.

Grammar: Correct these sentences.

1. The office cleaned every day.
2. Are these rooms be cleaned every day?
3. Glass makes from sand.
4. Does they sell stamps in the post office?
5. This word is not use very often.
6. Are we allow to park here?
7. How to pronounce this word?
8. This movie not so good.
9. Were people injure in the accident?
10. I not wake up when the alarm rang.
11. How did this window get break?
12. This house built one hundred years ago.
13. Where are you born?
14. When was invented the bicycle?
15. Someone broke into our house but nothing stolen.
16. Soccer plays in most countries of the world.
17. These frames are damage.
18. There was an accident. Two people were took to the hospital.
19. Where was they born?
20. A garage is a place where cars repair.

Pronunciation: Pronounce these word pairs. Notice they are spelled very differently, but pronounced similarly.

beauty - duty	cute - suit	boot - fruit	course - coarse	force - horse	source -hoarse
soap - hope	nose - grows	doubt - shout	comb - roam	phone - grown	sewn -stone

1--If you have a duty to someone, you have an obligation. For example, I have a duty to feed and clothe my children.

What duty do you have to your parents?

2-If something is cute, it is attractive. EX: Those kittens are so cute.

Are kittens cuter than puppies? Which would you rather have a kitten or a puppy?

3-Cowboys wear boots. Do you ever wear boots?

4-You take a course at the university. You might take a course in geometry or world history. If something is coarse, it is rough. EX: This fabric is course. It doesn't feel smooth against my skin. Canvas is a material sails are made of. It can feel very stiff and coarse.

What is your favorite course that you took in school?

5-If you force someone to do something, you make them do it. EX: My mother forces the children to eat everything on their plate.

Were you forced to do anything when you were growing up?

6-If you go to a sports event where you yell and cheer loudly, your voice can get hoarse. It sounds harsh. Sometimes when you have a sore throat, your voice gets hoarse.

When was the last time you were at an event that was very loud? Do you like to go to loud concerts or sporting events?

7-If you roam, you move around without any clear destination in mind. EX: The tigers roam around in the jungle. We roam around the mall on Saturday afternoons.

I like to roam around downtown on the weekend and look in the different stores and clubs. Where do you like to roam?

Conversations:

Jody: Beth saw an obstetrician this week. He performed a pregnancy test. She is pregnant. The baby is due in July.

Cal: Did Beth know she was expecting when she went to the doctor.

Jody: She suspected she might be pregnant.

1. Who did Beth see?
2. What test did she have?
3. When will the baby come?
4. What did Beth suspect?

Jenny: I went to see a dietician because I have gained a lot of weight. She told me to eat four times a day instead of three.

Faye: That's surprising advice. I thought you would eat less if you wanted to lose weight.

Jenny: Yes, I know. But she says I need to eat every 3 hours. She says if I get too hungry, then I eat a lot more. She wants me to have a protein snack in the afternoon. Then I won't be so hungry at dinner time.

Faye: I hope it works for you. Maybe I will try that too.

1. Who did Jenny go see? Why?
2. What advice did Jenny get?
3. Why is Faye surprised about the advice?
4. What should Jenny have in the afternoon?

Amy: There was an accident on my street. There were people injured. I called 911. The police arrived first. Then the ambulance came. The emergency medical technician (EMT) got out and started treating the injured people.

Claire: You are an R.N. (registered nurse). Did you help treat the injured?

Amy: I ran inside and called 911. Then I grabbed some clean towels and blankets to keep them warm and stop the bleeding. But by then, the ambulance had arrived. I didn't want to interfere with the EMT's.

Claire: Did anyone have to go to the hospital?

Amy: Yes, the EMT's helped load two people into the ambulance and took them to the hospital.

Claire: Were they badly injured?

Amy: One man had a very bad cut on his forehead. He will need stitches. And a woman looked like she had a badly broken arm. She might need surgery.

1. What happened on Amy's street?
2. What did Amy do?
3. Is Amy a doctor?
4. Did anyone go to the hospital?
5. What were their injuries?

Discussion:

1-Some American women use midwives instead of obstetricians deliver their babies. Do many people use midwives in your country?

2-What is the biggest health threat for people in your country?

3-Is it common for grandparents to live with their children and grandchildren in your country?

4-Do you think cigarettes should be banned?

5-Should the government put high taxes on products that are not healthy, like sodas and candy?

6-Did your mother teach you to cook healthy foods?

7-Would you prefer to be healthy or wealthy?