

FUMC ESL 2-1-2021 High Beginning and Low Intermediate

Introduce yourself. Tell where you are from and where you live now. Answer the question below.

When Beth travels she loves to see all the sights. She will stay very busy going from one attraction to another. When Shelly travels, she likes to relax. She might spend the day at a beach or spend all day exploring a machine. When you travel, are you more like Beth or Shelly?

Pronouncing sh and ch:

rush - roach	share - chair	seat - sheet	shop - chop	shore - chore	shoe - chew
watch - wash	hatch - hash	march - marsh	hutch - hush	lash - latch	fetch a fish
 This is a hutch.	 Did the chicken hatch?	 The birds are in a marsh.	 This is the sea shore.	 Soldiers march.	 an eye lash

1. Sometimes sisters share their clothes. Did you share your clothes with your sister?
2. Some people prefer colored sheets and others like white sheets. Which do you prefer?
3. Do you wear eye make-up? Do you wear false eyelashes?
4. Who does the wash at your house?
5. Have you ever caught a fish?
6. If you went fishing and someone handed you a worm to put on a hook, could you do it?
7. Which chore do you really enjoy doing?

GRAMMAR----Much or Many: We use much with non-count nouns (food, water, gold) and many with count nouns (bananas, clothes, chickens). Put much or many in the blank.

1. There are so ____ animals in the barn!
2. There is so ____ food in the refrigerator.
3. We don't have _____ information about the robbers.
4. ____ cities have tall buildings.
5. I know _____ people who love living in cities.
6. Do the kids have _____ fun at school?
7. They brought too _____ food to the picnic.
8. She didn't give _____ thought to what she would wear.
9. _____ students had questions for the professor.
10. ____ giraffes are over six feet tall when they are born.
11. I have _____ problems, but not _____ time or _____ money.
12. She had ____ cups of coffee this morning. I think she drinks too _____ coffee.

SEE is a verb: I see you. I saw you at the mall yesterday. I have seen you here before. I will see you tomorrow at Mother's house. I should see Joe tomorrow. I am seeing a dentist tomorrow. Haven't you seen that movie before?

Read these conversations. Explain in your own words what the conversation is about.

Andrea: Will you see Joe anytime soon?

Brenda: I should see him at Mother's party tomorrow.

Andrea: Would you give him this gift? I thought I would see him before Christmas. But I missed him.

Brenda: I'll give it to him the minute I see him.

Andrea: Good. You will get to see him open it. I want you to see what I got him.

1. Where will Brenda see Joe?
2. What does Andrea want Brenda to do?
3. What does Andrea want Brenda to see?

Callie: Do you see what I see?

Debra: Do you mean the policeman hiding behind the sign.

Callie: Yes. He is watching for speeders.

Debra: I am not speeding, so I don't have to worry.

Callie: You should watch your speed as you enter town. The speed limit decreases very fast.

Debra: I see what you mean. The speed limit just went from 70 to 55.

1. What do they see?
2. What is the policeman doing?
3. Why doesn't Debra have to worry.
4. What decreases?
5. The speed limit went down from 70 to _____.
6. Do you ever drive over the speed limit?

Beth: Your finger looks red and swollen.

Dani: Yes, I accidentally slammed the car door on my finger.

Beth: You should see a doctor about that. Your finger might be broken.

Dani: I don't think it's broken. I think it will heal. I'll just wait and see. I don't want to spend money on a doctor.

1. What does Beth see?
2. What happened to Dani?
3. What does Beth recommend?
4. Why doesn't Dani take Beth's advice?
5. What does Dani mean when she says she'll "wait and see"?
6. Do you think Dani should take Beth's advice?

Wife: I'd like to go out. We never go out anymore.

Husband: I've got too much to do tonight. I can't go out.

Wife: What do you have to do?

Husband: I have to watch my favorite TV show.

Wife: I can see you don't want to go out with me. Why not?

Husband: It's not that. I like to go out with you. But I really want to see the last episode of this TV show. It's the only chance I will get to see it.

Wife: I see what you mean. You have been watching this TV series. You don't want to miss the last episode. Maybe we can go out tomorrow night.

Husband: Yes. I will take you to dinner at a restaurant tomorrow night. Thanks for understanding.

1. What does the wife want to do?
2. What does the husband want to do?
3. What is an "episode"?
4. What do they agree to do?

Tim: Charlotte, I would like to take you out on a date. I want to take you to a nice restaurant for dinner. I'd like you to be my girlfriend.

Charlotte: Tim, I don't want to go on a date with you. I don't see you as a boyfriend. I see you as a friend. I see you almost as a brother.

1. What would Tim like?
2. How does Charlotte feel about Tim?
3. Do you have any friends that you see as a brother/sister?

Boss: Can you find someone to paint my office?

Assistant: Yes, I'll see about it.

Boss: Can you get me some more of those good markers for the white board?

Assistant: Yes, I'll see about getting them.

Boss: Can you bring me a cup of coffee?

Assistant: Yes, I'll see if I can get a cup of coffee from the cafeteria.

Boss: Can you call my wife and tell her I am taking my assistant out to dinner?

Assistant: Absolutely not!

13. What does "see about it" mean?
14. What does the assistant agree to do?
15. Why does the assistant say no to the last request?

James: I have to leave work early. My wife, Martha is flying to Chicago tonight. She's going there to see the sights. I'm going to the airport to see her off.

Erika: Ok, see you tomorrow. Can you come in early tomorrow?

James: I don't see why not. Martha will be gone, so I won't have to drop her off at her office.

Erika: One of my duties is to see that our salespeople are turning in their expense reports. I could use your help in going over the paperwork.

1. Why is Martha going to Chicago?
2. What does James mean by, "seeing off" his wife?
3. What does James mean by, "I don't see why not."
4. Why is James sure he can come in early tomorrow?
5. What is Erika's duty?
6. What does Erika want James to do?

Linda: Billy said many nice things about you. He said you were beautiful and smart. He must really like you.

Fay: No, Billy doesn't like me. I saw through his flattery. He didn't mean any of it. He was just trying to butter me up so I would recommend him for a promotion. He should know better. Billy is not a good worker. He is lazy. I would never recommend him for a promotion.

Linda: Oh, I see. I did hear that Billy was applying for a job in another department.

Fay: I hope he gets the job. If we've seen the last of Billy Mays, I'll be very happy.

1. What does Fay mean when she says she "saw through Billy's flattery"?
2. What does "butter me up" mean?
3. Why was Billy flattering Fay?
4. Will Fay recommend Billy for a promotion?
5. What did Linda hear?
6. What would make Fay happy?

Child: I am going to stay up until midnight tonight!

Dad: We'll see about that!

Child: I'll ask Mom. She will let me stay up.

Dad: Mother and I see eye to eye on this issue. Children shouldn't stay up late.

1. What is the child planning to do?
2. Does Dad tell her yes or no?
3. What does Dad mean when he says he and Mother "see eye to eye" about this.