Pronunciation: One of the things that makes English pronunciation so hard, is that the same group of letters, (ex: ear) are pronounced differently. So we have HEAR that rhymes with TEAR (the wet things that come out of your eyes), but not with TEAR (a small rip).

Practice pronouncing these word pairs that have similar spelling but sound very different.

bother - Mother	horse - worse	Suzy - busy	head - heat	tear in your dress - tear in your eye	hear - tear
lord - word	hear - heart	beard - heard	later - latter	steak - streak	how - low daughter - laughter	plaid - said	wound (injury) - round	toward - forward	alive - live	tomb - bomb

Pronounce these sentences.

1. Don't bother Mother.
2. Suzy is busy.
3. The horse is worse today.
4. Did you hear your dress tear?
