

FUMC ESL 4-3-2023 High Beginning and Low Intermediate Lesson

Introduce yourself. Tell where you are from and where you live now.

This coming weekend is Easter weekend, one of the biggest holidays in the Christian church. Here is some information about events at our church.

EASTER EGG FESTIVAL, APRIL 1

This past weekend, our church hosted an Easter Egg Festival on the lawn of the state capitol. Children hunted eggs and ran egg races. There was face painting, bubble blowing, pictures with the Easter Bunny and cookie decorating. I saw two of our students there with their families. Thanks to the students who helped stuff the eggs for this event. The children enjoyed them.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

APRIL 6

7:30PM | SANCTUARY & LIVESTREAM

The word “maundy” comes from Latin, meaning mandate or command. On this night, we celebrate Communion, the Holy meal and last supper, which Jesus shared with his disciples on the night before he died, the meal he “commanded” them to share in remembrance of him.

GOOD FRIDAY

APRIL 7

10:30AM | EDU MURCHISON CHAPEL

7:30PM | SANCTUARY & LIVESTREAM

Our morning time of worship is crafted with families with children in mind. In the evening, experience Christ’s crucifixion through Tenebrae, a service of shadow and darkness, with Scripture readings that share Jesus’ final acts on the Cross and music from the FUMC Austin choir.

EASTER SUNDAY

APRIL 9

9:00AM | SANCTUARY

11:00AM | SANCTUARY & LIVESTREAM

Celebrate God’s victory over sin, oppression, and death. Find new life and shout “Alleluia!” On Easter morning, we will have two worship services full of music, scripture, and good news.

PHRASAL VERBS - COME

The verb "come" is easy. EX: Come here. I'm coming. I come to class every Monday. But there are many other ways we use this word.

For example:

You can "come with" someone. EX: Come with us. Come with Joe and I to the movies. Do you want to come with me?

You can "come by". EX: Did you come by bus or plane? In other words, "How did you come?" "Come by" can also mean come to your home for a short visit. Do you want to "come by" the house after the play. Mom and Dad will "come by" to say hello. You can also use "come over" to mean the same thing. But "come by" usually means a really short visit. Come over could mean a longer visit. EX: Why don't you and Belle come over for dinner.

If someone or something "comes toward" you, they move in your direction. EX: The lion came toward us, so we jumped inside the truck.

If something "comes open" it opens when you don't expect it to. EX: The door came open. We jumped in the car. We closed the door, but the door came open. The lion came inside!

If something "comes up to" it rises. EX: The water flooded the house. It came up to our knees. Then the water came up to our waists. Then it came up to our shoulders.

Put one of these "come" phrases in the sentences below.

1-My parents are visiting. Would you and your husband like to _____ to meet them.

2-I go to school every day. I usually _____ bus. I always _____ my friend, Anna.

3-The dog is very big. He _____ my waist.

4-The cabinet door is open. Yes, it sometimes _____.

5-If the scary man _____ me, I will run.

Practice these conversations.

Jim: Would you like to dance, Shelly?

Shelly: No, thank you, Jim. I'm a really bad dancer.

Jim: Oh, come on, Shelly. I've seen you dance. You are a good dancer. Please come dance with me!

In this conversation, "come on" means go ahead and do it. Jim is encouraging Shelly to dance. If someone asked you to dance, would you do it? How often do you go dancing?

Lee: The water feels great, Jan. Come on in!

Jan: The water feels cold to me. I don't want to get in.

Lee: It feels cold now because it's cloudy. The sun will come back out in a minute and it will feel warmer.

Do you like to swim? Do you mind if the water is a little cool.

Does it scare you to swim in the ocean, in lakes or in rivers?

Did you take swimming lessons as a child?

Sandy: I was afraid no one would help me move. But Jon came through. He showed up with his truck and lots of boxes.

Tara: Jon is dependable. He always comes through.

If someone "comes through" they deliver a result. Jon showed up with a truck and boxes to help her move. He is dependable or reliable. Who is the most dependable person you know?
