

FUMC ESL 12-7-2023 High Beginning and Low Intermediate Lesson

Introduce yourself. Tell where you are from and where you live now.

What is the difference between these types of books:
notebook, scrapbook, checkbook, textbook, cookbook, comic book

1. Did you ever have a scrapbook? What kinds of things did you put in your scrapbook?
2. Did you save any of your textbooks? Why would you save a textbook?
3. What is your favorite cookbook? How many cookbooks do you own?
4. Did you read comic books when you were a kid? What are your favorite comic book characters?
5. Many stores don't accept checks, so I don't carry a checkbook. Do you carry a checkbook? What do you pay for with a check?

These sentences have verb errors. Correct them.

1. Hello Tom, I have seen you for ages.
2. Liz always go for a swim after work.
3. I didn't had a chance to learn to swim.
4. They hasn't called me for weeks.
5. That shop charge too much.
6. I walk to the store and bought some milk.
7. Anna and Mick is going skiing this weekend.
8. The house on this street with the big oak trees are too expensive.
9. She had bled all over the sink.
10. He has work on that project for months.

Let's talk about using "also", "too" and "as well". They all mean in addition to. As well is very common in British English, but not used as much in American English.

Also is used at the beginning or middle of a sentence. EX: He plays tennis and he also swims.
OR He plays tennis. Also, he swims.

Too and As Well are used at the end of the sentence. EX: He plays tennis and he swims too.
(Adding a comma before TOO or AS WELL, is optional.). OR He plays tennis, and he swims as well.

Practice Pronouncing the TH sound:

think	thank	thought	thumb	thirsty	thing
truthful	wealthy	nothing	something	gather	author

health	teeth	birth	death	month	cloth
fourth	fifth	fifteenth	fiftieth	thousandth	millionth

We both need something for our throats.
He thought thirty thousand dollars was a good thing.
Mathematics is one of her strengths.
Thanksgiving is on the fourth Thursday of the month.
The mother soothed the teething baby.

Compare the D sound with the TH sound

dare - their	den - then	ladder - lather	breed - breathe
